she said Isaac had a small grip with him Friday morning when he went down town. On his return in the afternoon he had a large grip. He explained that the small grip was in the large one. Friday evening Isaac asked what clothes Hiram wore and wrote an advertisement for the return of Hiram, which he showed to witness. Witness went to Lebanon, Maine, the day after the body was found and identified the socks as Hiram's from the darns and laundry marks. Identified a sore on the hand and bunch on the instep, where a low tight shoe had been, and another sore on the foot. She identified the handker-chief shown her at Rochester as one given Hiram the day he was murdered; also the shoes and shirt button, the latter sewed with blue thread by her for Hiram. There is a vast amount of snow about headquarters.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 18.—Reports received here last night show a very heavy snowfall over the mountain counties north of this city, and in the mountains lying south along the North Carolina border the snow ranges from six inches to three feet deep, and has been falling since Tuesday noon. In southwest Virginia the snow is very heavy. At Bristol yesterday no trains on the Norfolk and Western railroad were able to get through on time to connect with the East Tennessee; in fact, the schedule on that road has been abandoned, as the road is buried, in snow. Upper east Tennessee has from six to twelve inches of snow, and it has been falling more or less since yesterday. The ground is very wet and it has not frozen so far. There is no snow west of here, though much has fallen to-day, which melted. Reports continue to come in of the heavy snow storm in upper east Tennessee. At 9 o'clock this morning it was eight inches on a level at Johnson City and twelve inches at Bristol and is still falling at both places.

ELMBRA, Dec. 18.—Snow began to fall here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and continued all day, about one and a half feet falling on the level. At 5 o'clock a strong wind from the north sprang up and blew a gale, piling up the snow in drifts four or five feet deep. A large number of freight trains were stalled here. Erie No. 12, due here at 10:10 p. m., was reported at Addison at midnight, with little prospect of getting farther before morning. All trains were late and the indications were that the railroads would be completely tied up.

the heavy sleeper was carried half the length of the first car it ran along side of it instead of crushing through, as it would have done on a straight line.

The sleeper was not so badly smashed as the other cars. The engine—still drawing the baggage and mail cars—passed over the bridge, the timbers of which were badly broken up by the two cars derailed by the plunge of those in the rear. After passing the bridge the mail car went down the embankment, having apparently turned completely over in its descent. The engine and derailed baggage car continued on passing over a second road bridge safely and were brought to a standstill a few hundred yards further on. As soon as the news of the disaster reached the city a number of medical men crossed the river and went down on a special train to the scene of the disaster and rendered efficient aid to the wounded passengers.

It is believed that two or three more bedies will be found in the wreak. The left of the traits act shall not be held to impede or impair the force of the treaties between the United States and other countries.

The Indian who was killed was a nephew of Kicking Bear. Yesterday General Carr sent a troop of cavalry up into the bad lands to watch any movement of the hostiles. A signal was established by the troops and our camp by three relays. Should the troop be attacked they were to be reinforced from here. They reported about seventy tepees being seen in the Indian stronghold and totally inaccessible. The only known outlet of escape for these Indians is a trail which goes up the Cottonwood pass across the road from Rapid creek to Wounded Knee, crossing the Cottonwood before it crosses Bad Water, to near the high point occupied by the hostiles. Fr. Yates, N. D., Dec. 18.—The funeral of the five police, Shave Heffd, Broken Arm, Hawk Man, Afraid of Soldiers and Little Eagle, who were killed in Monday's fight, took place yesterday afternoon with full military honors. The cortege in all comprised nearly 1,000 persons. The burial services were very impressive. Father Boynard performed the rites of the Catholic church and delivered an eloquent tribute to the dead. After reading the above Mr. White continued his remarks, saying: What we desure chiefly is not an extension of the city government over surrounding suburban districts, but what we do want is to get rid of a government from within the limits of a large and growing city which is suited only for villages and rural districts. When the population of a town reaches a certain point a system of representative government is absolutely necessary. Whatever government our friends in the suburbs desire let them have it, so far as it is consistent with our city government. Let Westville for it to do. After an hour or more of discussion the resolution was unanimously adopted, and the argumenas expressed in its favor were able and vigorous. Those present were among the leading business and professional men of the city, including Hon. Lynde Harrison, J. D. Dewell, Mayor Peck, ex-Mayors Henry Lewis and S. A. York, Nathan Easterbrook, jr., Professor Chander, M. Zunder, Walter Leigh, Councilman Kleiner, ex-Alderman Winchell, Lawyers Simeon E. Baldwin, C. H. Fowler, Police Commissioner Baldwin and many others.

In his entirely new and natural drama, UNCLE JOE, or FRITZ IN A MADHOUSE. Which ran three months at the 14th Street Theater, New York. Excellent company, entire new songs, carload of scenery. Plinlimmos, the $5,000 dog, the largest and handsomest dog in the world.

NEW HAVEN POLO RINK.

salt rheam, psoriasis, etc. Is there no way to open these channels for throwing this out? Yes, by opening the pores. This is quickly done by cutting with a mild astringant the cuticle or callous capping of the skin. Is it injurious? No, it cannot be, for it does not penetrate into the true skin. Is it injurious to rub off the calloused skin—entirely dead—from the sole of the foot? There is no lift to this cuticle. Does it injure a tree to trim the dead branches? So, then, don't fear to use Mme. A. Ruppert's Face Bleach. It is a tonics—no cosmetic. It has been tried, convincing in its everyseffort, does not show in the face nor destroy healthy color.

World-renowned Face Bleach sent to any address for price, $3 per bottle; three bottles (usually a cure), $5. Send 4c, or call for further instructions how to be beautiful.
